Goldilocks and the Three Bears

Goldilocks was a little girl who found a house in the forest. Inside, she saw three bowls of porridge. One was too hot, one was too cold, and one was just right. Goldilocks ate the one that was just right.

Next, she saw three chairs. One was too hard, one was too soft, and one was just right. When she sat in the just-right chair, it broke!

Goldilocks went upstairs and found three beds. One was too high, one was too low, and one was just right. She fell asleep in the just-right bed.

While she slept, the three bears who lived there came home. They saw what Goldilocks had done. They weren't mad, just surprised.

Goldilocks woke up and said sorry. The bears forgave her. They reminded her to ask before using things that didn't belong to her.

From then on, Goldilocks remembered to be polite. She and the bears became friends, and they all lived happily ever after.
